

Art Gallery
of Western Australia

Sensational Art:

Free Touch Tours for Visitors with Vision Impairments

Join a trained Voluntary Gallery Guide for a customised tour of specially selected artworks from the State Art Collection. Wearing gloves to protect the artworks, visitors will have the opportunity to explore volume, texture, scale and more!

Pam Barras with her seeing eye dog Whisper

Pierre Renoir, 'Tete de Venus', 1915, bronze with black patina, State Art Collection, Art Gallery of Western Australia, Purchased with funds presented by Swan Portland Cement Ltd, 1980

It is essential that you book for this free one hour tour. For details phone 08 9492 6644 or email educate@artgallery.wa.gov.au, Conditions apply.