Diarise the date today.

Following on from the highly successful 2011 tour to Venice, Foundation Members are set to enjoy a unique art tour to New York in 2012. The six day tour will be conducted by AGWA Director, Dr Stefano Carboni. New York was Stefano's home for 16 years while he was the Curator and Administrator of Islamic Art at the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Stefano's contacts and knowledge of the New York arts scene are sure to make this another memorable Foundation trip.

Anticipated highlights:

Private tour of the American Wing at the Metropolitan Museum of Art with the Chair of the Department.

Director's tour of the Museum of Modern Art (MoMA).

Behind the scenes visit to the Museum of Art and Design.

Visit to a private collection of exquisite Asian Textiles.

The best of the contemporary galleries in the Meat Packing District.

Making the most of the vibrant New York performing arts and music scene.

The tour will be from Monday 3 September to Monday 10 September 2012. An initial itinerary and costs will be forwarded to all members in the New Year.

Express your interest in February.

These special travel experiences are open to Foundation Members at the level of Fellow and above. Expressions of interest for the tour will be taken in February 2012 once the itinerary has been sent to you. There will be limited numbers available.
